Greetings from Your RCM team!

Much is going on in the fellowship locally and globally as the World Service Conference has just ended as of yesterday. I am sure we will have a full report at our next region as to how our voices were heard at the world level and what is next at that level.

Our next florida regional service committee meeting is May 16-18.We will return to our more traditional format on Saturday of Area Support meetings, topics for workgroups and round table discussions. All are welcome to attend and provide your ESH. This is also a great place to learn about differnt types of service outside of our area, if you are inclined.

Friday the 16th is when most trusted servants from other areas are arriving and we will have a recovery meeting at 10:00pm on Friday night. Several Homegroups in our area were ask to host this meeting by FRCNA as this is the weekend that they host the region and they declined. I am proud to say my homegroup (all 4 of us) stepped up and will be chairing the meeting on Friday night.

We only had one proposal to vote on this month Proposal #1-01-14 RSC Budget for approval.

In Service-

Jeni HT
