Concerns or Needs

The GOASCNA Discussion group will undergo a re-vamp. An email will be sent to all members of the google group which will give notice they will be deleted from the group. Any current member at large wishing to remain on the group can simply reply to the notice. No action will be needed by currently elected members on the roll call as they will remain on the group. I am asking for direction related to previous admin remaining on the group with posting previledges. I could not find that in our guidlines.
