General Report

good afternoon family, last month we had 33 members in attendance, with 10 new members present. We had the pleasure of having Sherri from area attend our subcommittee and give our group information on the upcoming Service Awareness Day in June, so we will be going over our presentation for SAD at our next meeting date. We have $975.90 in our literature budget and placed no order for the month of april. We also reviewed our policy with our group for the proposed GOASCNA policy changes and will be going over the rest at our next meeting.
