Good morning all,

This month we had a total order of $1,156.70. One of the items never came in, due to my mistake, so I will get those next month. Due to the holidays and the issues we had last year, I will be ordering this stuff from Region tomorrow, so get your orders in now!!! I got a few quotes from other printers for our meeting lists. The first one is Office Depot, they are charging $340.00 for 1,000 copies, $450.00 for 1,500 copies, and $600.00 for 2,000 copies. The second location is Staples, who're charging $388.00 for 1,000, $556.50 for 1,500, and $734.00 for 2,000. If you have any questions please let me know.

Greater Orlando Area Service Committee of Narcotics Anonymous, RCM

Report for December 10, 2023

Hello everyone I would like to take a moment to thank two GSR'S Daniel and Natasha for coming out to support the Region Service. Thank you all for your service. Regional Service Area met on November 19, 2023 @9:00 AM

Florida Service Symposium (FSS)

We have distributed announcements about Florida Service Symposium X on March 14-17, 2024. Please note this is the 3rd weekend in March, and located in the Tampa FunCoast area. This is the premiere service symposium in the world, so if you've never been, you will want to make sure to be there. If you have service enthusiasts in your area, be sure to invite them, as all areas will have 4 room nights reimbursed. Please note, RCMs should not stay in rooms meant for the area members. More details, including the registration form and hotel booking link will be available by December 1, 2023.

<https://NAFlorida.org/FSS>

The Florida Service Symposium brings all elements of the Florida Regional Service Committee together to further the common welfare of NA. The purpose of the Florida Service Symposium is to provide members of the NA Fellowship with cutting edge education and training, including that typically not found elsewhere in our fellowship. Our mission is to share information, experience, strength and hope at an educational forum, with the objective of increasing effective leadership and communication within NA.

We are asking, If your area has trinkets or merch left over from conventions or events that they would like to donate to the Florida Service Symposium, it would be greatly appreciated. Please bring that to January RSC.

WIS Dinner:

Friday night during the Florida Service Symposium we will have a Women in Service Dinner. More details to come and tickets will be available during registration.

Admin Report

- Treasurer Seating (Facilitator) - Treasurer team will stay in RSC room and we will try to better pinpoint exactly where any issues may be arising from and will also ask on the floor that questions to treasurer team be handled earlier in the day and be submitted in writing, if possible.
- RD/AD IDT Presentations (RD) - IDT Presentation will happen at FD from 10-11:30am.
- Pro tem treasury position (HRP) - Marie will announce the leaving of her treasurer position during open forum on RSC Sunday.
- FYI: Out of town for December Admin (Alt Secretary)
- FSS Date - FD Coleader will be absent

Corrected minutes will go out with the addendum added in above the elections portion of the minutes. Moving forward, HRP does not make nominations themselves, they just give a vote of confidence or not. • Admin Review of minutes/Secretary Team Drive (Secretary Team) - tabled to next meeting

Fellowship Development Group

The response attached to this report requested by the workgroup regarding 3 year term length was read: "recommendations for RSC Futures workgroup"..

Topics suggested included:

Richard: Following the vote for the 3year conf cycle - will there be a GSR Assembly?

SJ: How should a homegroup deal with an OD at their meetings, how should they handle, should they inform the landlord, should they keep Narcan at meetings?

Tammy: What happens when area members are not consistently showing up and standing up for needed area positions. What is the limit to what a vice chair can fill in for at ASC?

Keith: An update was requested and provided to the state of the behind the walls meetings in the Florida Region.

Erin - Please announce in your area need resources for convention recorder -- Sister Sol is retiring

Ron - How to address the landlord (Pastor) coming into meetings and making announcements that are not NA related?

Shahid - How can we make more service more attractive?

Tammy - How to deal with older members who are very argumentative - not attractive - causing others to step away

The AD and RD then spoke for a few minutes about the "Disruptive and Predatory Behavior" topic and how it was chosen as part of the worldwide NA survey over all other pieces of literature to be worked on.

The "Disruptive and Predatory Behavior" workshop addresses issues within Narcotics Anonymous (NA) meetings and proposes solutions. Summary:

Members' Responsibilities

Not Using NA as a Dating Service: Avoid romantic pursuits within the group.

Welcoming Newcomers: Individual greetings, attentive body language, avoiding cell phone distractions. Education on Traditions and Language: Assisting newcomers to understand NA's practices and jargon. Inclusivity: Avoiding cliques and sitting with newcomers.

Respectful Intervention: Addressing both predators and victims respectfully.

Mentorship and Example: Guiding those displaying predatory behavior and setting a good example. Mindful Sharing: Being considerate in what and how one shares.

Strong Leadership: Choosing a capable chairperson and intervening if necessary.
Sponsoring Responsibly: Sponsors should address issues with their sponsees.

Group and Service Body Responsibilities

Collective Approach: Handling issues as a group with kindness, love, and compassion.

Adherence to Literature: Using NA literature to guide discussions and actions.

Format Adjustments: Incorporating known concerns into meeting formats.

Escalation Process: Having a procedure for when group-level interventions are insufficient.

Contacting Authorities: In cases of imminent danger or legal violations.

Additional Considerations

Resource Development by NAWS: Creating materials to help address these issues, such as videos, a universal definition of predatory behavior, and informational pamphlets.

Addressing All Forms of Predatory Behavior: Including non-sexual forms of predatory behavior in discussions and materials.

Solution Strategies

Group Format Changes: Adding relevant sections to meeting formats.

Welcoming New Members: Ensuring they feel included and understood.

Direct Intervention: Addressing individuals exhibiting problematic behavior privately and compassionately.

Support for Restraining Order Compliance: Offering to accompany affected members to other meetings.

Virtual Meeting Management: Using technical tools to manage disruptive participants.

Group Discussions: Addressing issues in business meetings and through collective prayer or silence.

Focus on Recovery Atmosphere: Holding meetings specifically to discuss maintaining a healthy recovery environment.

We have a handout and topic aimed at encouraging NA groups to proactively address disruptive and predatory behaviors, grounding their approach in the principles of recovery and mutual support.

Area Support Issue Discussion Topics

Issue 1: How Narcotics Anonymous (NA) groups should handle incidents like an overdose during meetings, particularly when it involves the use of Narcan (a medication used to reverse opioid overdoses).

The summary of the different perspectives and practices includes:

Facility Contact: In the event of an overdose, the primary action is to contact the facility where the meeting is held. Ambulance vs. Police: There's a debate on whether to call an ambulance or the police, with the emphasis on seeking medical help first.

Narcan Availability: Some groups keep Narcan on hand as a precaution. If Narcan is administered and there's no response, emergency services are called.

Group Responsibility: Varying views exist on whether it's the group's responsibility to carry Narcan. Some members prefer to carry it individually.

Legal and Ethical Considerations

Confidentiality and Publicity: Concerns are raised about maintaining NA's anonymity and avoiding negative publicity in emergency situations.

Insurance and Liability: Questions about how such incidents affect the group's insurance and potential liabilities. Good Samaritan Laws: These laws might offer legal protection to those who assist in emergencies, but their applicability varies.

Group Autonomy and Health Risks

Enabling Concerns: Some worry that readily available Narcan might enable drug use, questioning if NA groups are inadvertently supporting drug use.

Safety vs. Risk: The idea that it's better to have Narcan and not need it, versus needing it and not having it, is highlighted. However, concerns about incorrect use and potential adverse reactions are noted.

Tradition 4 and Group Decisions: Each group has the autonomy to decide whether to carry life-saving equipment like Narcan.

Drug Use as a Choice: A viewpoint suggests that unlike unforeseen allergic reactions, drug use is a conscious choice, impacting the group's decision on carrying Narcan.

Educational Resources: The importance of educating members about Narcan use, including watching instructional videos and understanding it's for first aid only. Media Attention: Handling potential media attention and the involvement of public relations (PR) after calling 911.

Communication and Group Policy

Explaining to Emergency Services: Strategies on how to explain the situation to emergency responders without breaking NA traditions.

Group Policy on Narcan: Discussions around whether groups should have Narcan, and if so, whether additional training is required. This discussion reflects the complex and varied responses within NA to overdoses during meetings, balancing the need for immediate medical assistance, concerns about enabling drug use, and the impact on NA's principles and public image.

Issue 2: Making Service More Attractive in NA

The discussion centers on finding ways to make service roles within Narcotics Anonymous (NA) more appealing to members. The key points include:

Challenges Faced

Conflict in Service Meetings: Instances of older members arguing at service meetings, which may create a negative perception of service roles.

Multiple Positions Held by Individuals: The issue of members holding multiple service positions simultaneously, potentially due to a need for volunteers.

Strategies for Encouragement

Sponsorship Role: Encouraging sponsors to involve their sponsees in service, following the example of previous generations who demonstrated the importance of service.

Active Recruitment: Suggesting a proactive approach to asking members to take on service positions.

Resources and Perspectives

Fellowship Development Data: Archived data from fellowship development that might offer insights and guidelines on this issue.

Diverse Opinions on Service: Acknowledging that some members are naturally inclined towards service, while others may not be interested.

"Service Position Collectors": Addressing the tendency of some members to accumulate multiple service roles.

Structural Considerations: Need for Committees: Questioning whether certain committees are essential or if their functions can be managed differently.

Spirit of Rotation: Promoting the principle of rotation in service roles to encourage participation and prevent burnout or monopolization of roles.

In summary, the issue revolves around finding effective ways to make service roles within NA more attractive and accessible to members, considering the challenges of conflicts, overextension of individuals in multiple roles, and varying levels of interest in service work. The discussion suggests a combination of mentorship, proactive engagement, and reevaluation of structural norms to enhance participation in service.

Issue 3: Criminal Justice Volunteer Coordination in NA

This issue focuses on streamlining and supporting the process for Narcotics Anonymous (NA) members who wish to volunteer in criminal justice settings. The key elements include: Online Application and Orientation

Accessibility: The application and orientation for volunteering in criminal justice institutions are available online, making it easier for NA members to access and complete them.

Institution Selection: Volunteers have the option to choose the institution where they wish to volunteer.

Coordination and Support

Regular Communication with Authorities: Colin, the FD Co-leader, maintains regular contact with the Florida DOC Substance Abuse Bureau in Tallahassee to facilitate the authorization of NA members for volunteer work.

Key Contact Person: Jef S is our regional H&I Coordinator and is identified as the primary contact for those interested in Hospital and Institution (H&I) service, indicating a centralized point for information and coordination. Organizational Structure

Lack of Corrections Coordinator: The absence of a designated corrections coordinator is noted, which might be a gap in the organizational structure for managing these volunteer efforts.

Regular Meetings: The work group dedicated to this area meets bi-weekly (every other Thursday at 8 pm), providing a regular forum for discussion and coordination.

Communication Channels

Email Contact: The specific email address (HIC@naflorida.org) is provided for further information and engagement, offering a direct line of communication for interested volunteers.

In summary, Issue 3 addresses the efforts to organize and support NA members volunteering in criminal justice settings, highlighting the online application process, the importance of consistent communication with authorities, the need for a corrections coordinator, and the establishment of regular work group meetings.

Issue 4 in Narcotics Anonymous (NA) deals with managing external interference from organizations that provide meeting spaces. The issue and proposed solutions can be summarized as follows:

Strategies for Direct Communication

Meeting with the Organization: It is recommended for two NA members to meet with representatives of the organization renting out the space. The goal is to discuss concerns and establish clear boundaries to prevent interference in NA meetings.

Public Relations Efforts

PR Presentation: The Public Relations Resource Coordination team suggests creating and presenting a PR presentation to the facility. This presentation would aim to educate the organization about NA's purpose and meeting structure, clarifying what is expected during NA meetings.

Regional PR Meetings Involvement: Liz, the PR Resource Coordinator, is actively involving regional PR representatives in these matters. One initiative includes having Steve participate in regional PR meetings, which are attended by numerous regional PR people, to enhance support and resources for NA areas.

Learning from Other Areas' Experiences

Handling Intrusive Behavior: There was an incident in one area where a pastor conducted tours during an NA event, causing disruption. This highlights the need for clear guidelines and communication with those who provide meeting spaces.

Policy on Non-member Observers: Another area has implemented a policy that allows non-members to observe meetings but requests them not to participate actively. This policy serves as a potential model for other areas facing similar issues. In summary, Issue 4 emphasizes the importance of effective communication and public relations strategies in addressing external interference in NA meetings. By engaging directly with organizations, utilizing PR resources for education, and learning from the experiences of different areas, NA aims to minimize disruptions and maintain the integrity of its meetings.

Issue 5: Handling Facility Requests for Drug-Free Guarantees

The discussion in Narcotics Anonymous (NA) centers on how to respond if a facility renting space to NA meetings requests a guarantee that no drugs will be present on the premises. The key points of the issue and the proposed approach are as follows:

Challenge of Guaranteeing Drug-Free Premises

Inability to Guarantee: NA acknowledges that it cannot guarantee that no drugs will be present at its meetings, given the nature of the recovery process and the diverse stages of recovery of its members.

NA's Response Strategy

Finding Alternative Facilities: If a facility insists on a guarantee that NA cannot provide, the suggested solution is to consider finding a different facility that better understands the nature of NA meetings.

Reiterating NA's Policy at Meetings: Despite the inability to guarantee a drug-free environment, NA does make a routine request at each meeting for attendees not to bring drugs onto the premises.

In summary, Issue 5 addresses the challenge of facilities requesting guarantees from NA for drug-free meetings. NA's response is to recognize its limitations in providing such guarantees and to consider alternative meeting spaces if necessary. Additionally, NA continues to remind its members at meetings not to bring drugs, reinforcing its commitment to a recovery-focused environment.

H & I Resource Coordinator Report

H&I report 11/19/23

I was unable to attend the strategic planning session in October due to a scheduling conflict. I met with the FD meeting via Zoom 11/10/23 @ 6:30pm.

I have started meeting with or contacting as many area H&I Facilitators as possible.

I've kept up with incoming emails and tried to direct people looking for new meetings to come to their facilities towards their local area PR subcommittee.

Technology Resource Coordinator Report

This is my first region as IT coordinator, I was able to reset all the emails for all the newly elected positions, if you are having any issues getting logged in or using your region email please send me an email at ITC@naflorida.org.

I attended the Zoom presentation regarding the updates being made to the NAWS "Find an NA meeting" page. Which was very informative in regards to the changes they are making. On the new site you will be able to search by location instead of meetings populating in the surrounding areas you will get a list of areas near the location you searched for. You can change the radius you are looking for meetings in and they will populate on a map as well as a list and there will be a hyperlink to the area website as well as the helpline number provided.

They are going to pull the current information from the current page however I am asking each area to check and make sure all their meetings, website, and contact information is correct before the site goes live. Please visit www.na.org/phoneweb and check by searching for meetings in your area by zip code or city. If your area does not have a website, please provide the region website of naflorida.org so that anyone looking for meetings in our region can be directed to a website in their area. If there are any updates needed, please send an email to nadata@na.org.

If your area is struggling with creating a working website or looking to revamp your website to be more user friendly, we have a member that is offering his assistance. If you would like more information, please contact me directly and I can connect you.

We are forming an IT panel to assist the IT resource coordinator and allow more members to be involved. If you are interested in being involved, please make sure you have submitted your HRP form and let HRP know you are interested and HRP will be holding interviews in January for the open positions on the IT panel.

Thank you for allowing me to serve! In loving service,
Pam S.

We are long term members of Narcotics Anonymous we have been vetted through the HRP process, were nominated and elected to the Florida RSC HRP panel to oversee the Human Resources pool and the Guide to the Florida Region. We are committed to finding the “right people” to offer to the body to put them in the “right seats”. Those decisions are ultimately made by the body with recommendations coming from HRP. If you are new to service at Florida Region or have not completed a HRP Volunteer form in the past two years, please visit <https://naflorida.org/hrpform/>. All forms older than two years will be purged from the system. FRC Board Report

The FRCNA, Inc BOD met yesterday November 18, 2023, here live and onsite in Hospitality Room 236.

Here are a few updates: After receiving the fellowships' feedback last year about not taking enough time to acknowledge the Areas and clean time countdown on Saturday night, there were a few audio challenges which were out of our control, we reflected on the timing and how we could balance the timeframe. For FRCNA 42 we, made a decision to adjust the Saturday night program to accommodate and improve the timing of this portion of the format. We did this by eliminating the 2nd comedy night and spotlight Friday night with two comedians. There will be an opening comedian followed by the main headliner. The convention logo was selected yesterday at our BOD meeting. We will have pre-con merchandise available at RSC in January. We are requesting speaker submissions recorded within the previous 2 years. Please upload your MP3 under the SPEAKER tab at frdna.com. A reminder that all onsite registrations at the convention next year will be electronic only. We will have volunteers at the Registration Desk to assist with this process. We are continuing to migrate from multiple communication platforms, i.e., Zoom, Google, etc. to strictly utilizing Microsoft Teams. Last month we met at the Rosen Plaza and after looking over the meeting space, we were able to increase the number of banquet seats from 300 to 350 for FRCNA 42. Currently, we are at 43% occupancy within our room block. So, we do have plenty of rooms left that you can book, but please know that the hotel is sold out for those dates, beyond our room block. Once our room block is sold out, there will be no additional rooms available to add to our room block like we normally do right before the convention. When our room block is full, you will need to look into surrounding hotels. FRCNA 42 Hotel information: Rosen Plaza 9700 International Drive Orlando, FL. Double occupancy rooms are $142/night, there is a $20 charge for additional guests above two per room. Self-parking will be $8 with unlimited in/out access daily. Book your room at frcna.com select the HOTEL tab.

We want to thank all Areas of the Florida Region for encouraging your members to come and attend our Support Committee meeting in October. We are hoping to involve more members and more Areas to the Support Committees this year.

We realize it may not be easy or prudent for members to come to Orlando for in-person Support Committee his year.

We realize it may not be easy or prudent for members to come to Orlando for in-person Support Committee meetings every other month. Therefore, we will only have three in person onsite meetings, the third Sunday of October, February, and the first Sunday in June. October 15, 2023, February 18, 2024, and June 2, 2024. All other Support Committee meeting will be held on the third Sunday of December and April virtually via Microsoft Teams from 10:00 am-12:00 pm.
